

CERTIFICATE

This is to certify that Dr. Mauricio Orozco worked as a Researcher in the research project “MASTI: MaaS and Socio-Territorial Inequalities” in the Research Group 4 – Transportation Systems of the Research Centre CERIS (Civil Engineering Research and Innovation for Sustainability), at Instituto Superior Técnico of the University of Lisbon, from 1 September 2021 to March 2025,

During this period, Dr. Orozco contributed to the scientific development and execution of the project. His responsibilities included:

- Design and development of survey instruments
- Data management and data cleaning
- Statistical modeling and quantitative data analysis
- Interpretation of research findings
- Scientific writing and preparation of academic publications
- Contribution to technical reports and dissemination activities

Dr. Orozco carried out his duties with professionalism, methodological rigor, and strong commitment to research excellence, leading to the following outputs:

- 3 peer-reviewed publications in Q1 journals.
- 3 International conference presentations
- 1 Workshop with mobility stakeholders
- 1 Seminar

This certificate is issued at the request of the interested party for all due purposes.

Prof. Filipe Mercier Vilaça e Moura
Co-Principal investigator

Lisbon, February 16, 2026